

HR Policy Manual 2026

Section 1: Welcome and Code of Conduct

Welcome to the company! This HR Policy manual outlines the core guidelines, responsibilities, and expectations of all employees. Every team member is expected to maintain high levels of professionalism, integrity, and ethical conduct.

Our company values diversity, inclusion, and mutual respect. Any form of harassment, discrimination, or hostile behavior will result in immediate disciplinary action up to termination. Employees are requested to report infractions directly to HR.

Section 2: Equal Opportunity and Workplace Environment

We are committed to providing equal opportunities in all aspects of employment. Decisions regarding hiring, promotion, compensation, and training are made solely based on merit, skills, performance, and business requirements.

We strive to maintain a safe, clean, and healthy workplace environment. Smoking, drug abuse, and alcohol consumption are strictly prohibited on office premises. Compliance with local health regulations is mandatory for all shifts.

Section 3: Working Hours and Attendance

Standard core hours are Monday through Friday, 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM, including a 1-hour lunch break. Flexible arrangements are available upon approval by the department head and HR division.

Employees are required to punch in and punch out using the ERP portal every work day to record attendance accurately. A delay of more than 15 minutes without prior notification is marked as a late arrival. Repeated late arrivals may impact performance ratings.

Section 4: Performance Reviews and Promotion

Annual performance evaluations are conducted in December. Managers assess key performance indicators (KPIs), goals met, and team cooperation. A mid-year check-in is conducted in June to track progress and discuss adjustments.

Promotions and merit-based salary increases are aligned with performance review outcomes. Employees showing consistent leadership qualities and technical excellence will be considered for high-priority advancement tracks.

Section 5: Disciplinary Procedures and Termination

When issues of performance or conduct arise, HR applies a progressive disciplinary framework: first a verbal warning, followed by a written warning, suspension, and finally termination.

In cases of severe misconduct (such as theft, fraud, or violence), the company reserves the right to terminate employment immediately without prior notice. Resignations require a formal notice period of 30 days.
