

Employee Leave Guidelines 2026

Section 1: General Leave Rules

All active full-time employees are entitled to standard paid leaves. The total paid leaves allowed per calendar year is 12 days for casual leaves and 12 days for sick leaves.

Leaves must be applied in advance through the ERP Portal. Department heads must review and approve leave requests to ensure operational continuity. Unused casual leaves expire at the end of the year and cannot be carried forward.

Section 2: Casual Leaves (CL)

Casual leaves are intended for personal reasons, family matters, or short vacations. Employees must request casual leave at least 3 business days in advance to allow workload planning.

No more than 3 consecutive casual leaves can be taken without special written permission from the department head. Casual leaves cannot be clubbed with sick leaves or maternity/paternity leaves.

Section 3: Sick Leaves (SL)

Sick leaves are designated for personal medical emergencies, illnesses, or recovery. In case of unexpected sickness, the employee must inform their supervisor before 10:00 AM on the day of absence.

If sick leave exceeds 2 consecutive days, a valid medical certificate signed by a registered practitioner must be uploaded to the ERP portal upon return. Slander or misuse of sick leaves is considered a serious policy violation.

Section 4: Maternity and Paternity Leaves

Female employees are entitled to 26 weeks of paid maternity leave for the first two children, which can be taken up to 8 weeks before the expected delivery date. Relevant medical documentation is required.

Male employees are entitled to 15 days of paid paternity leave, which must be utilized within 6 months of the child's birth. Application must be submitted to HR at least 4 weeks prior to the start date.

Section 5: Leave Encashment and Approvals

Only annual leaves (earned leaves) are eligible for encashment, up to a maximum of 30 days upon retirement or resignation. Casual and sick leaves are never eligible for cash payouts.

HR administers final audits on leave balances. In cases where leaves are exhausted but additional time off is required, employees may request Leave Without Pay (LWP) subject to executive approvals.
